

CONCLUSION

Gresham's multimodal streets and multi-use paths are dynamic places and vital to the community's livability and economic vitality. Through policies, action measures, modal system plans, a project list and funding forecast, this 2035 Transportation System Plan serves as the blueprint to implementing the community's vision of safe, pleasant and convenient access and travel within, to and through Gresham.